Chapter 5 by robin hood

because he was conforming to society's expectations that he, a chicken, must cross a road when confronted with one.

Chapter 6 by Unkie

knowing that crossing the road is what chickens do, he crossed it because he was "afraid" not to do it. I guess you could say he was just plain "chicken".

Chapter 7 by ember

Because life.

Chapter 8 by Contemtuos Commander Grigsby

But as he looked to the other side of the road, where he wanted to be, it dawned on him- maybe he didn't want to be a chicken.
